Another WCRE Milestone for a Mission That Matters
WCRE Foundation Raises $90,000 at 8th Annual Charity Golf Tournament

July 2025 - MARLTON, NJ— With hearts full and clubs swinging, the WCRE Foundation proudly hosted its 8th Annual Charity Golf Tournament, raising an outstanding $90,000 for six impactful local charities. Held at Ramblewood Country Club on Wednesday, June 26, 2025, this beloved event brought together community, compassion, and camaraderie—even in the middle of a summer heatwave and an uncertain economy.

Thanks to the support of 130 local business leaders and guests, the turnout was nothing short of extraordinary. The day was packed with great golf, friendly competition, and spirited contests—all in support of organizations making a real difference in the Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey region.

This flagship event was co-created by Philadelphia Flyers icon Brian Propp, WCRE's Director of Strategic Relationships, and Jason Wolf, WCRE's Managing Principal. The tournament was led by Gabrielle Leonetti, WCRE's Director of Marketing and Vice President of the WCRE Foundation, whose leadership brought the vision to life once again.

A genuine thank-you goes out to our incredible volunteer team- Erin Warwick, Leah Wolf, Jess Dieckert, and Grace Vera for managing check-in with grace and enthusiasm. We also want to recognize Brian Goren for his early coordination efforts with Ramblewood Country Club that helped set the day up for success, as well as our friends at LuCas Images and Bridget Quigley for capturing this amazing day!

We extend our heartfelt thanks to our sponsors who were instrumental in the event's success:
